
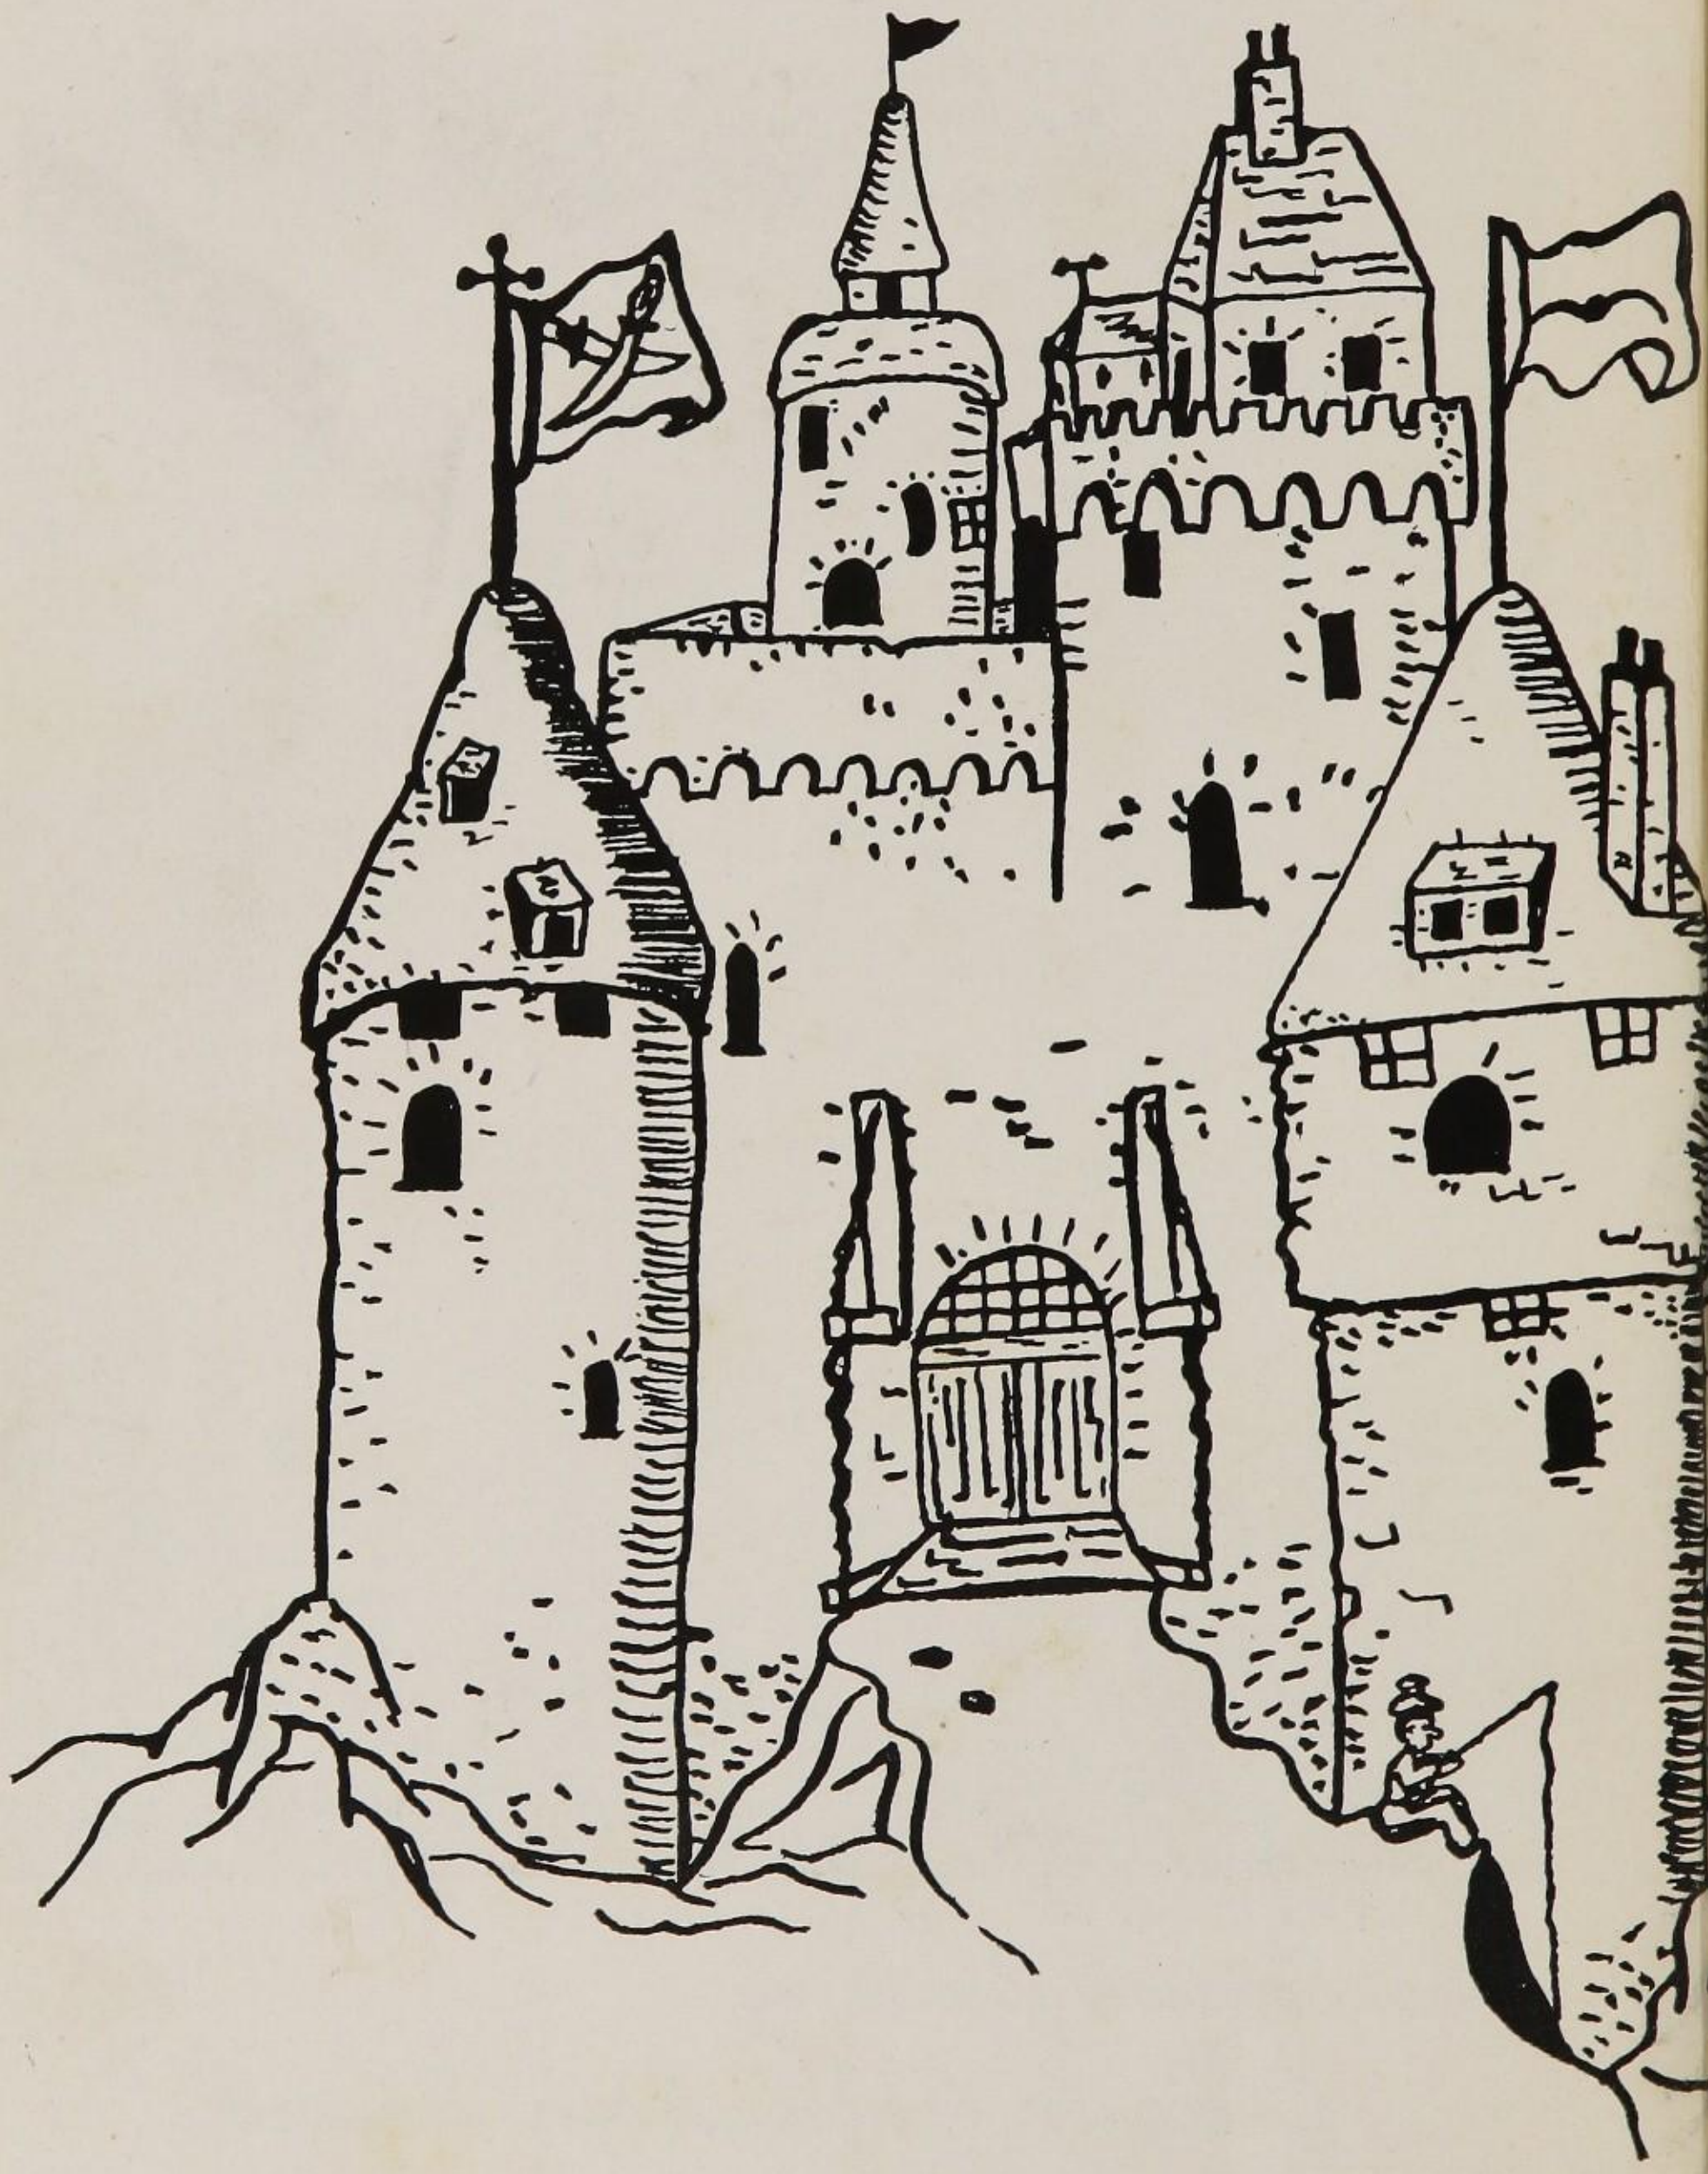
The Senior Class of

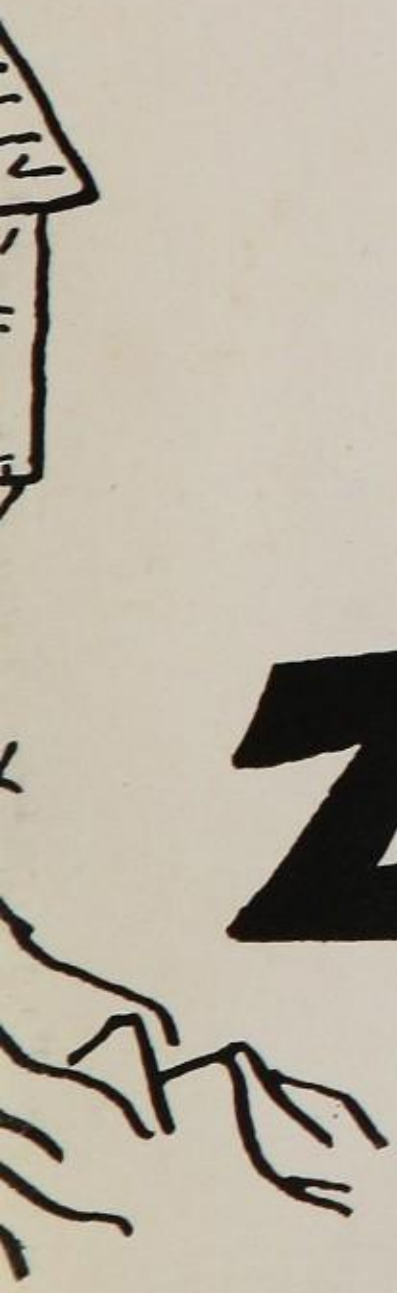
Chagrin Falls High School

Proudly Presents . . . .



THE GATHERING OF THE CLAN

THE 1952 ZENITH



Acknowledgment

WE, the Zenith Staff of 1952, wish to extend our heartiest thanks to Mr. Norman Fry, our advisor, Ellen and Bill Hood, photographers, Mr. George C. Vance of the Tower Press, Mrs. Helen Daugherty of the Northern Engraving and Electrotype Company, the merchants and businessmen of our valley, our parents and teachers, and everyone else who has helped to make the 1952 Zenith possible.

Foreword

THE shocking disclosures of betrayal of trust by men in high places who have been appointed or elected to guard our interests must be as disillusioning to you as it has been to me. I have been wondering what words you can use as a guide when you are placed in a position of responsibility so that you do not sell your honor for crass materialism. It seems to me that Polonius' advice to his son is perfect for any young person beginning his career to follow.

This above all: to thine own self be true,
And it must follow, as the night the day,
Thou canst not then be false to any man.

Through your church, home, and school you have had implanted within you the seeds of worth, and, believing as I do, in the inherent goodness and decency of youth, all you have to do to uphold a position of trust is to be true to yourselves.

It has been a pleasure and a joy to work with you this year. I consider that your motto,

Let this suffice, by this conceive the rest, he should, he could, he would, he did the best, is certainly apropos to the Class of '52. Your yearbook and all your other activities more than bear this out.

As you go to another period in your life, we, of the Chagrin Falls High School staff, want you to know that you carry with you our heartfelt best wishes for a contented and worth-while future.

Miss Elsa Jane Carroll,
Class Advisor

Dedication

WE, the Class of '52, in attempting to show our appreciation for her sincere interest in each one of us, dedicate our yearbook to Miss Elsa Jane Carroll.

Class Motto
Let this suffice, by this conceive the rest, he should, he could, he would, he did the best.

A Wee Giftie Gie' Ye!

Ben Miraglia, President; Bob Boone, Secretary; Ford Bull, Vice-President; Tom Rodgers, Treasurer.

WE, the gay, fascinating, dashing, romantic, witty, gracious, and charming clan of nineteen hundred fifty-two, with the pleats in our kilts and the ribbons on our caps, with our bagpipes blaring forth, do proclaim this to be our last will and testament.

Article I. To the faculty we leave directions for a complete rest cure in Scotland. After us, they deserve it!

Article II. To those cocky juniors we leave our Scottish thrift in hopes that they, too, will learn how to pinch a penny here and there.

Article III. To those rambunctious sophomores we leave our Scottish dialect because we don't understand it ourselves.

Article IV. To the clamorous freshmen we leave our bagpipes because it is the only way they can make more noise than they already do.

Article V. The Will.

I, Dick Akers, do will and bequeath my ability to play ping-pong to Jack Sasak.

I, Gordon Apel, do will and bequeath my old gym shorts to Junior White.

I, Mary Anne Babcock, do will and bequeath my nickname, "Babo", to the manufacturers of that cleanser, in the hopes that they will keep things cleaner than I have.

I, Warren Barber, do will and bequeath my quiet, moody ways to Dave Spanagel.

I, Margie Barriball, do will and bequeath my grey hairs to the teachers who have had me in their classes.

I, Betty Alice Bell, do will and bequeath my old bathing suit to Marilyn Simons who someday intends to fit into it.

I, Bob Boone, do will and bequeath my enormous size to Jimmy Bowe in hopes that he will some day become an All-County fullback.

I, Tom Bowe, do will and bequeath my numerous wisecracks to Jack McFarland to add to his collection.

I, Florence Brichford, do will and bequeath my smiling countenance to the Ipana Company for use in their advertisements.

I, Ford Bull, do will and bequeath my ability to look interested in class when I'm really half asleep to Larry Katchele.

I, Barbara Bullock, do will and bequeath my melodious, lilting soprano voice to Bruce Crittenden in hopes he will join Choral Club next year.

I, Bill Butler, do will and bequeath one of my feminine admirers to my brother, Bob, for his first date.

I, Genie Church, do will and bequeath my jolly outlook on life to Roger Hartman and Roger Armstrong in hopes that they will be Jolly Rogers.

I, Rhea Collier, do will and bequeath my exuberant vitality and boundless energy to Stanley Sindelar.

I, Tom Conway, do will and bequeath my plentiful supply of joke books to next year's public speaking class in hopes that they, too, can squeeze B's out of Miss Carroll.

I, Gerry Cox, do will and bequeath my powerful glasses to anyone who wants to start a fire without matches.

I, Jean Davis, do will and bequeath my sweet, angelic smile and placid disposition to Marilyn Simons in hopes that it will make her a better neighbor.

I, Judy Engstrom, do will and bequeath my blush to Gordon Nichols in hopes that he can find some use for it.

I, Jim Fitzpatrick, do will and bequeath my knowledge of the English language to anyone who dares to speak it in front of Miss Carroll.

I, Jerry Froebe, do will and bequeath my cool ways with the women to Larry Katchele.

I, Jim Gibson, do will and bequeath nothing, because if I had anything worth leaving, I'd take it with me.

I, Betty Grieme, do will and bequeath my various and sundry talents to the school in hopes that they will help bring about a more extensive curriculum.

I, Martin Hawthorne, do will and bequeath my old brown car to Jack Sasak, seeing as how it was almost his in the first place.

I, Doug Heck, do will and bequeath my Rebel hat to our fellow Confederate, Miss Routt.

I, Tom Henderson, do will and bequeath myself to California; here I come!

I, Cecil Hill, do will and bequeath my smelly T-shirts and shorts that I used in football to anyone who can stand them.

I, Carl Hofmann, do will and bequeath my graceful nickname, "Fluff", to Big Al Cowhard.

I, Jim Hubbard, do will and bequeath my ability to chat with the feminine contingent alone across the noonday table to Ron McCormick.

I, John Hurst, do will and bequeath my knowledge of the Metropolitan Park bridle paths to any aspiring horsewoman.

I, Dean Imars, do will and bequeath one can of red paint which is now in my possession back to Mr. DeVore.

I, Virginia Mason, do will and bequeath my pale yellow gym socks to anyone who wishes to be holey.

I, Ben Miraglia, do will and bequeath my exquisite tenor voice to Kenny McCabe in hopes that he will not ruin it by drinking too much water.

I, Don Nelisse, do will and bequeath my junk heaps to the United States Government to be made into a nice new tank.

I, Ann Pearch, do will and bequeath my secret formula for removing mimeograph ink to my sister, Nancy, so she can carry on the Pearch tradition in the Echo room.

I, Sue Pinkett, do will and bequeath the school to my brother, Dick, who has only five more years to go.

I, Leora Robbins, do will and bequeath my kids, Jenny and Leslie Cathcart, to Margie Ryan in hopes that she can take better care of them than I did.

I, Tom Rodgers, do will and bequeath my ability to cook to any up-and-coming hen-pecked husband.

I, Carolyn Ryan, do will and bequeath my Irish temper to Coach Quesinberry so he will stop teasing me about it.

I, Anita Shatford, do will and bequeath my ten-year-old gem of a car to any tuition student who wants to live dangerously on his way to and from school.

I, Ray Simpson, do will and bequeath my vast knowledge of the English language to Don Bullock.

I, Lura Smith, do will and bequeath my gentle, ladylike mannerisms to Jean Engelhardt.

I, Stephanie Smith, do will and bequeath my collection of boy friends to Sarah Carlson so she can keep up the friendly relations between schools when I leave.

I, Jack Stanton, do will and bequeath my perfect attendance record to Jim Stratton (in hopes).

I, Charles Stevenson, do will and bequeath my size twelve shoes to Jim Bowe so that he might have a better understanding.

I, Pat Stoneman, do will and bequeath my orange cheering jumper to Lisa Weeks, because she already has it.

I, Doris Waller, do will and bequeath my ability to untangle argyle socks to the home ec department for further use.

I, Rosalyn White, do will and bequeath my boy friends to myself; I want to keep them.

I, Sally Wilson, do will and bequeath my pug nose to Sally Schwerzler.

I, Judy Worley, do will and bequeath my ability to get along with Miss Carroll to my brother, Jerry.

I, Merry Lee Keal, do will and bequeath my sister to Miss Carroll in hopes that Jane will capably demonstrate the Keal spirit to her.

Wee Laddies and Lassies

Juniors

Advice: Chance fights ever on the side of the prudent.

CLASS OFFICERS

President ..... KARL HOEKSTRA
Vice-President ..... AL COWHARD
Secretary ..... JAMES MOYSE
Treasurer ..... BRUCE CRITTENDEN

VERSATILITY is the keynote for this class. Whether it be on the football field or operetta stage, a junior is always near at hand. While the boys formed a major portion of the football, basketball, and track squads, the girls created a sizeable portion of the crowd, led by four of their stalwart members who were cheerleaders. With the opening of the new semester the Class of '53 took us into the Orient with their "Chinatown" dance, and soon after we sailed with them to France when Our Hearts Were Young and Gay. With the completion of term papers and the operetta, this class settled down to work on that grand and glorious prom which proved to be one of the best that Chagrin has ever seen. Looking back over the year, it is plain to see that activities wouldn't have been complete without "Those juniors".

SEATED: Hoekstra, Moyse, Cowhard, Crittenden. FIRST ROW: Nichols, Cubberly, Toth, B. Matthews, Curtiss, Crowe, Fram, Weeks. SECOND ROW: Sasak, Lambert, Scott, Simons, Britt. THIRD ROW: Hartman, Hawersaat, Bradley, Clark, Hills, Nelisse, Kline, Carlson, Richards. FOURTH ROW: Sargent, Ferris, Keck, Robinson, J. Ebel, Burke, Barriball. FIFTH ROW: Spanagel, McCormick, Williams, Luckay, Hawn, Bullock, Plzak, Wendl. SIXTH ROW: Kachele, Armstrong, G. Matthews, Stroud, McCabe, Lawyer, D. Ebel, Mr. Lopatt, Mr. Lewandowski.

1. Why so solemn, gals? 2. Two of a kind. 3. He-man. 4. The object of your affections? 5. Egads, what is it? 6. Sun-kissed lassie. 7. "Hoppy" Matthews. 8. Looks familiar. 9. One a piece at least. 10. Lightweight. 11. "Tarzan" Plzak. 12. Whoa, babe!

Sophomores

Advice: It is better to bow than break.

CLASS OFFICERS

President ..... DAVE COHN
Vice-President ..... RONALD WILSON
Secretary ..... STAN SINDELAR
Treasurer ..... TRUDY TOSO

ALTHOUGH they are often thought to typify the fictional conception of adolescence, the sophomores are something more than this. They are interested in sports, music, and learning. These exuberant members of the Class of '54 show a deep enthusiasm for everything in and around Chagrin Falls. They are bound together by a feeling of satisfaction and admiration for one another. Everything they attempt is a huge success, whether it be selling mums at football games or organizing their dance, "April in Paris". This group can usually be depended upon to fill the halls of C.F.H.S. with newsworthy items, perhaps their numerous romances or colorful antics. As long as this class remains in school, zeal, pep, and spirit are certain to reign in the high school.

SEATED: Toso, Cohn, Wilson, Sindelar. FIRST ROW: Budnick, Wendl, Robinson, Ulrich, Anderson, Schroeder, Rock, Englehart, Mrs. Hensley. SECOND ROW: Blair, English, Kulscar, Green, Collier, Fulton, Myers, Pearch, Tilton, Weider. THIRD ROW: Cutshaw, Smith, DeCavitch, Birkin. FOURTH ROW: Cramer, Blair, Carlton, Shelton, McNally, Worley, Jephson, Best, Hladik. FIFTH ROW: Crink, Ashton, Steele, Hudson, Miller, Burton, Stephan, Konyescni, Mr. Wheatcraft.

1. Cutie pies. 2. Streetcorner gang. 3. Does he bite? 4. Too bad they weren't in shorts. 5. Gruesome bunch. 6. Who is she, Jamie? 7. I wanna be on top! 8. Smile, please. 9. Cheesecake. 10. Why so grumpy, Jim?

Freshmen

Advice: Look before you ere you leap.

CLASS OFFICERS

President ..... Larry Harmon
Vice-President ..... Bill Moyse
Secretary ..... Malinda Hunt
Treasurer ..... Ann Giffhorn

LIVELY, effervescent, with the characteristics of a string of firecrackers, describes one class—the freshmen! They would certainly be an addition to any school, and Chagrin is fortunate in having them. The class is composed of lads and lassies who love to have a finger in every pie and usually do. Their history dates back to September 1942, when they started kindergarten, and they've been making history ever since.

The Class of '55 is, as a whole, very sports-minded. The Freshman Team came out on top of the heap in the SOMAC basketball league. David Hill was named the most promising freshman football player, following in the footsteps of his older brother.

The class elected officers for the first time in September. Ray Britt, president-elect, withdrew to attend Western Reserve Academy, so Larry Harmon took the reins and Bill Moyse was elected new vice-president.

With the spirit shown in the past, this class will, no doubt, make their remaining years full of fun and excitement.

SEATED: Giffhorn, Britt, Harmon, Hunt. FIRST ROW: Richardson, Wilson, Bowe, Mares, Hofmann, Stoneman, Barriball, Butler, Bowers. SECOND ROW: Woods, Nichols, McClanahan, Banning, Boetcker, Reitz, Hunt, McBride, Keck. THIRD ROW: Sekeres, Moyse, Reed, Davis, Babcock, Stoney, Jackson, London. FOURTH ROW: Ryan, Schwerzler, Engstrom, Longwell, Banning, Hill, Snow, White, Curtiss, Hawthorne. FIFTH ROW: Stebbins, Hill, Cleveland, Van Gorder, Milner, Hooker, Yunkes, White, Van Nort, Wiley. SIXTH ROW: Hart, Mr. Harper, Robinson, Mrs. Hensley.

1. Serve a hot one! 2. Picture of dejection. 3. What a line-up. 4. Is she daid? 5. Pin-up (?) 6. Be prepared. 7. Whoa, babe. 8. Pals. 9. Esther Nichols Williams. 10. Our cutie. 11. Ye old swimming hole. 12. Overloaded.

Eighth and Seventh Grades

ACTIVITIES

Choral Clubs

SENIOR AND TENTH GRADE OFFICERS

Presidents ..... Tom Rodgers, Dave Hladik

Vice-Presidents ..... Barbara Bullock, Nancy Pearch

Secretary-Treasurers ..... Joan Lambert, Jayne Collier

Librarians ..... Virginia Mason, Rhea Collier,
Lynn Ulrich, Nancy Myers

Director ..... Mr. William Freeland

Honor Society

SEATED: Collier, Church, Babcock, Grieme, Engstrom, Shatford, Bell, Pearch, Bullock, Stoneman. STANDING: Hawn, Simons, Curtiss, Richards, Carlson, Miss E. J. Carroll, Crowe, Britt, Clark, Bullock.

President ..... Don Bullock
Vice-President ..... Shirley Curtiss
Secretary-Treasurer ..... Jerry Hawn

THE members of the Honor Society are chosen from the juniors and seniors who have shown good character, a willingness to help, an interest in school activities, as well as outstanding scholastic achievement. One of the Honor Society's annual dates is a trip to Cleveland where they spend a delightful evening at one of the playhouses.

Key Club

President ..... JACK STANTON
Vice-President ..... TOM RODGERS
Secretary ..... JIM MOYSE
Treasurer ..... BOB BOONE
Senior Director ..... BEN MIRAGLIA
Junior Director ..... JERRY HAWN
Advisors ..... MR. HAROLD STEVENSON, MR. HOWARD WIANT, MR. TED PRATT

THE Key Club of 1951-52 has strengthened its roots in the school program. By performing projects on their own, without the aid of the sponsoring Kiwanis Club, the Key Club has become a more independent organization. Next year's club should be even more active due to the experience gained this year.

Y-Teens

SEATED: Miss Johnson, Miss Legge, Britt, Mason, Pearch, Babcock, Bell, Ryan, Church. FIRST ROW: Crowe, Robinson, Kline, Anderson, Curtiss, Richards, Scott, Schroeder, Rock, Wendl, Toso, Engelhardt, Ulrich, English, Fram, L. Smith, Bullock, Engstrom. SECOND ROW: Davis, Wilson, R. Student Activities Council

SEATED: Engstrom, Mrs. Johnson, Davis, Collier, Toth, Church, Rodgers, Harmon. STANDING: Bowers, Simons, Moyse, Camp, Heck, Van Nort, Plzak, Cramer, Myers, Fletcher.

President ..... Rhea Collier

Vice-President ..... Don Toth

Secretary ..... Jean Davis

Treasurer ..... Genie Church

Advisor ..... Mrs. Margaret Johnson

ALTHOUGH still experiencing "growing pains", the Student Activities Council has come a long way this year. Numbered among their accomplishments were an impressive installation ceremony and a panel discussion designed to inform the student body on student-faculty problems. In addition to these achievements, the council lightened Mr. Gurney's tasks by assigning dates for class and school functions.

Junior Red Cross Council

SEATED: Brichford, Ulrich, Reitz, Collier, Ebel, Neff, Baehr, Smith. STANDING: Mrs. Hensley, Konyescni, Banning, Moyse, Wiant, Solether.

President ..... Judy Ebel

Vice-President ..... Jayne Collier

Secretary-Treasurer ..... Valerie Reitz

Advisor ..... Mrs. Frieda Hensley

THE Junior Red Cross enjoyed a very successful year under the leadership of Mrs. Hensley. Among its projects were making cosmetic cases for shut-ins and setting up equipment for the local Blood Donor Center. This was only the second year of the Junior Red Cross in the high school and it proved to be a very active one.

Echo Staff

SEATED: Burke, Bell, Gibson, Church, N. Pearch, A. Pearch, Curtiss, Ryan, Hawthorne, Lambert, Babcock. STANDING: Wilson, Mason, Robinson, English, Fulton, Collier, Smith, Kline, Sturges, Engstrom, Britt. THIRD ROW: Nichols, Imars, Heck, Stroud, Steele, Mr. Lewandowski, Konyescni, Bullock, Cubberly, Toth, Conway.

Editor ..... Ann Pearch
Managing Editor ..... Shirley Curtiss
Assistant Managing Editors ..... Nancy Pearch, Carolyn Ryan, Joan Lambert.
Art Editor ..... Jim Gibson
Assistant Art Editor ..... Gordon Nichols
Sports Editors ..... Martin Hawthorne, Doug Heck, Tom Conway
Staff Columnists ..... Genie Church, Don Bullock, Stephanie Smith, Lynn English, Betty Alice Bell, Virginia Mason, Mary Anne Babcock.
Exchange Editors ..... Judy Engstrom, Sally Wilson
Echoette Editor ..... Miss Kier
Advisor ..... Mr. Joe Lewandowski

THE Echo staff spent another year writing and rewriting their stories covering the highlights of C.F.H.S. news. The usual Wednesday night panorama of confusion prevailed, with its splattering of ink and eradicator fluid, the fluttering of colored paper and wrinkled stencils, and the clanging of empty coke bottles. Each week left the haggard but pleased production staff hopelessly daydreaming about "Wednesdayless" weeks

Librarian ..... Burton Longwell
Director ..... Mr. James Harper

EVEN with rehearsal time cut to three days a week, the band was able to maintain its high standard of half-time performances at the football games. Although snow forced the December concert of martial music to be canceled, weather didn't hamper the spring concert which was its usual great success. Added to the list of accomplishments is the Solon, Mayfield, Orange, Chagrin concert which showed signs of great things to come in the future. The annual banquet and dance rounded out a full year of activity.

Cowboys and city lassies, Mexican senoritas, ranch owners, desperate characters, and maiden aunts—all in a series of modern adventures pleasantly tinted with the romance of early days were found in Meet Arizona. The Choral Clubs worked long and feverishly to put on the operetta. Their work was justified when the audience was well pleased on the last Friday in April.

CALENDAR

SEPTEMBER

We troup back to school to find it just about the same, Mr. Wheatcraft being the only addition. . . . The Round Robin at Heights proves to be a poor barometer as North Olmsted dumps the Tigers. . . . Seniors voluntarily and freshmen compulsorily act like babies at G.A.A. initiation. . . . We travel over the hill to thrash Chardon. . . . The classes renew their battle as magazine sale time comes around again. . . . Y-Teens open the year with an impressive candlelight service. . . . We send the Bees back to their hive with a 19-6 defeat. . . . At our first paid assembly William Haaker makes faces for us while tickling the ivories. . . . Tigers wind up the month well by soundly trouncing Independence.

OCTOBER

We open the month with campaign strategies and speeches as our political assemblies get under way. . . . Junior high salesmen take all the honors as the magazine sale ends. . . . We clip Mayfield after a hard-fought battle. . . . Seniors take time out from classes to take a gander at hardened criminals and their quarters. . . . Heights celebrates Columbus Day by handing the Tigers their first league defeat. . . . Bosom friends become arch rivals as we hold our primary election. . . . We celebrate a win over Olmsted Falls and a long weekend as N.E.O.T.A. rolls around again. . . . After a rousing pep rally we enter the Orange game full of spirit but are repelled after a hard fight 18-6. . . . Spooks and goblins take a back seat to the Class of '52's Carnival.

NOVEMBER

Old Man Winter carries the spotlight at the Solon "game" as Queen Engstrom, Dads, and Tigers freeze. . . . Stanton proves that an Independent can win as he edges out party candidates in mayoralty election. . . . Awards, both serious and otherwise, are handed out as Tigers end season with annual banquet. . . . G.A.A. and Varsity Club combine resources to give their annual dance. . . . "Man With 1,000 Voices" leaves a sour taste in our mouths which the seniors promptly remove with their grand production of Pride and Prejudice. . . . Two days extends into a week as snow expands our turkey holidays. . . . 500 pounds of old clothing are collected for Bundle Day. . . . We open the season by handing the Bainbridge quintet a defeat, but Heights trumps us in our first league game.

DECEMBER

We hand Independence their only defeat of the season in a battle-of-the-wits overtime. . . . Key Club hauls out the hay for their postponed hard times dance. . . . Brecksville staves our last minute rally to win by 3 points. . . . Choral Club members get their long-awaited pins. . . . Tigers have an easy night as they defeat Mayfield. . . . Varsity Club celebrates Christmas early with their party in the gym. . . . Sixth graders display their talents in Merry Christmas, Mr. Snowman. . . . Choral Club takes a back seat to snow and holds their concert as part of the annual Christmas assembly. . . . Queen Church reigns at a magnificent Y-Teen Formal. . . . We take time out from holiday escapades to watch the alumni split their two games with the Tigers. . . . The U.Y.F. helps C.F.H.S. students ring out the old and ring in the new with a grand dance.

JANUARY

We end vacation time by defeating Orange. . . . After a saddening 1 point defeat by Heights, Independence follows with an even more saddening 2 point win over us. . . . Varsity Club views the actions of the Barons. . . . Lowest scoring game of the season is recorded as Chagrin repels the invading Bees. . . . Chagrin scores a last minute win over Mayfield as we are greeted by Mr. Casebolt in civies. . . . The seniors celebrate the end of the semester with "Toyland".

FEBRUARY

We open the month with an easy win over Solon after the seniors recover from their tests. . . . Orange, Mayfield, and Solon bands combine with Chagrin to give their first annual concert. . . . Juniors and seniors begin to see the light as they journey to Nela Park. . . . Grievances are aired and problems cleared as the Activities Council sponsors a student-teacher panel discussion. . . . Chagrin's J.V.'s wind up on top of the league by defeating the Orange Cubs. . . . The gym takes on an oriental light as the Class of '53 sponsors "Chinatown". . . . Seniors shed tears as the Solon game ends the year. . . . Tournament time rolls around again.

MARCH

Joyous are the Chagrin gals as they play Solon and Orange girls at the annual G.A.A. play day and win back Oscar, the big, pink bunny. . . . High School ecstatic as Student Council brings out Bill Randle, The Four Lads, and Cindy Lord. . . . Many composers turn over in their graves as the annual band concert is held. . . . Good food and music spotlight the band banquet and dance. . . . The juniors display their thespian talents in Our Hearts Were Young and Gay. . . . Cinders are kicked up as track season starts again.

APRIL

The Hallelujah quartet makes us forget April Fool's Day pranks with their grand singing. . . . The sophomores show their versatility by giving us a very good dance. . . . Music wafts through the halls as the Choral Club presents Meet Arizona.

MAY

Eliot James presents a highly enjoyable afternoon of entertainment. . . . Music is the keynote once again as the grade school gives its spring concert. . . . G.A.A. and Y-Teens bid the seniors adieu with a banquet and tea respectively. . . . Seniors' antics bring laughs and tears alike as they give their final performance on the C.F.H.S. stage. . . . Juniors present a memorable banquet and prom to the parting Class of '52.

JUNE

With Baccalaureate, Commencement, and a round of gay parties the seniors bid a fond farewell.

Athletic Council

Mr. Lopatt, Mr. Sands, Mr. Gurney, Stanton, Mr. Quesinberry, Fitzpatrick.

THE Athletic Council is composed of the high school superintendent, principal, coaches, and two boys elected from the student body. The purpose of this board is to handle all financial matters dealing with athletics and to approve all sports events and awards.

Football Team

FIRST ROW: Fitzpatrick, Jon Fitzpatrick, Shelton, Rodgers, Plzak, Ebel, Conway, C. Hill, Miraglia, Hubbard, Hofmann, Gibson, Hawthorne, Bullock, Bull, Stanton, Katchele. SECOND ROW: Hurst, Stevenson, Armstrong, Wilson, Hudson, McNally, J. Moyse, Cowhard, Crittenden, Toth, Imars, Cubberly, B. Matthews, Hoekstra, G. Matthews, Farris, Barber,

Football Scores

CHAGRIN—32 ---------- CHARDON—0

The Tigers ventured to Chardon and after a rousing battle the Fallsmen came out on top of a 32–0 score. The Hilltoppers could not stop the scoring of Hawthorne, Katchele, Miraglia, Hubbard, and Hill, who each scored one touchdown.

CHAGRIN—19 ---------- BRECKSVILLE—6

For our first home game the Tigers faced a team which was heavier man for man, but with their fight and spirit the Tigers won.

CHAGRIN—34 ---------- INDEPENDENCE—12

Although Independence seemed to have us throttled in the first half, the Tigers' superior might and power were too much for the Blue Devils.

CHAGRIN—12 ---------- MAYFIELD—7

Chagrin barely squeezed by the stubborn Wildcats due to a timely boot by Fitzpatrick.

CHAGRIN—2 ---------- CUYAHOGA HEIGHTS—6

The Orange and Black probably played their best defensive game of the season. Despite the terrific line play of the Tigers during the second half, and the fact that they had the ball inside of the Heights' five yard line, they could not push the ball over. It was a heart-breaking game.

CHAGRIN—26 ---------- OLMSTED FALLS—19

The Fallsmen journeyed over to Olmsted for their last game on foreign territory. Although the weather was warm and the field dusty, the Tigers were not to be denied. In this game Fitzpatrick became the only Tiger to score three touchdowns in one game.

CHAGRIN—6 ---------- ORANGE—18

This was a game that Orange will not soon forget. The Tigers outplayed the Lions in the first half, but, due to their greater depth, they finally wore the Tigers down and then went on to score three touchdowns.

CHAGRIN—0 ---------- SOLON—0

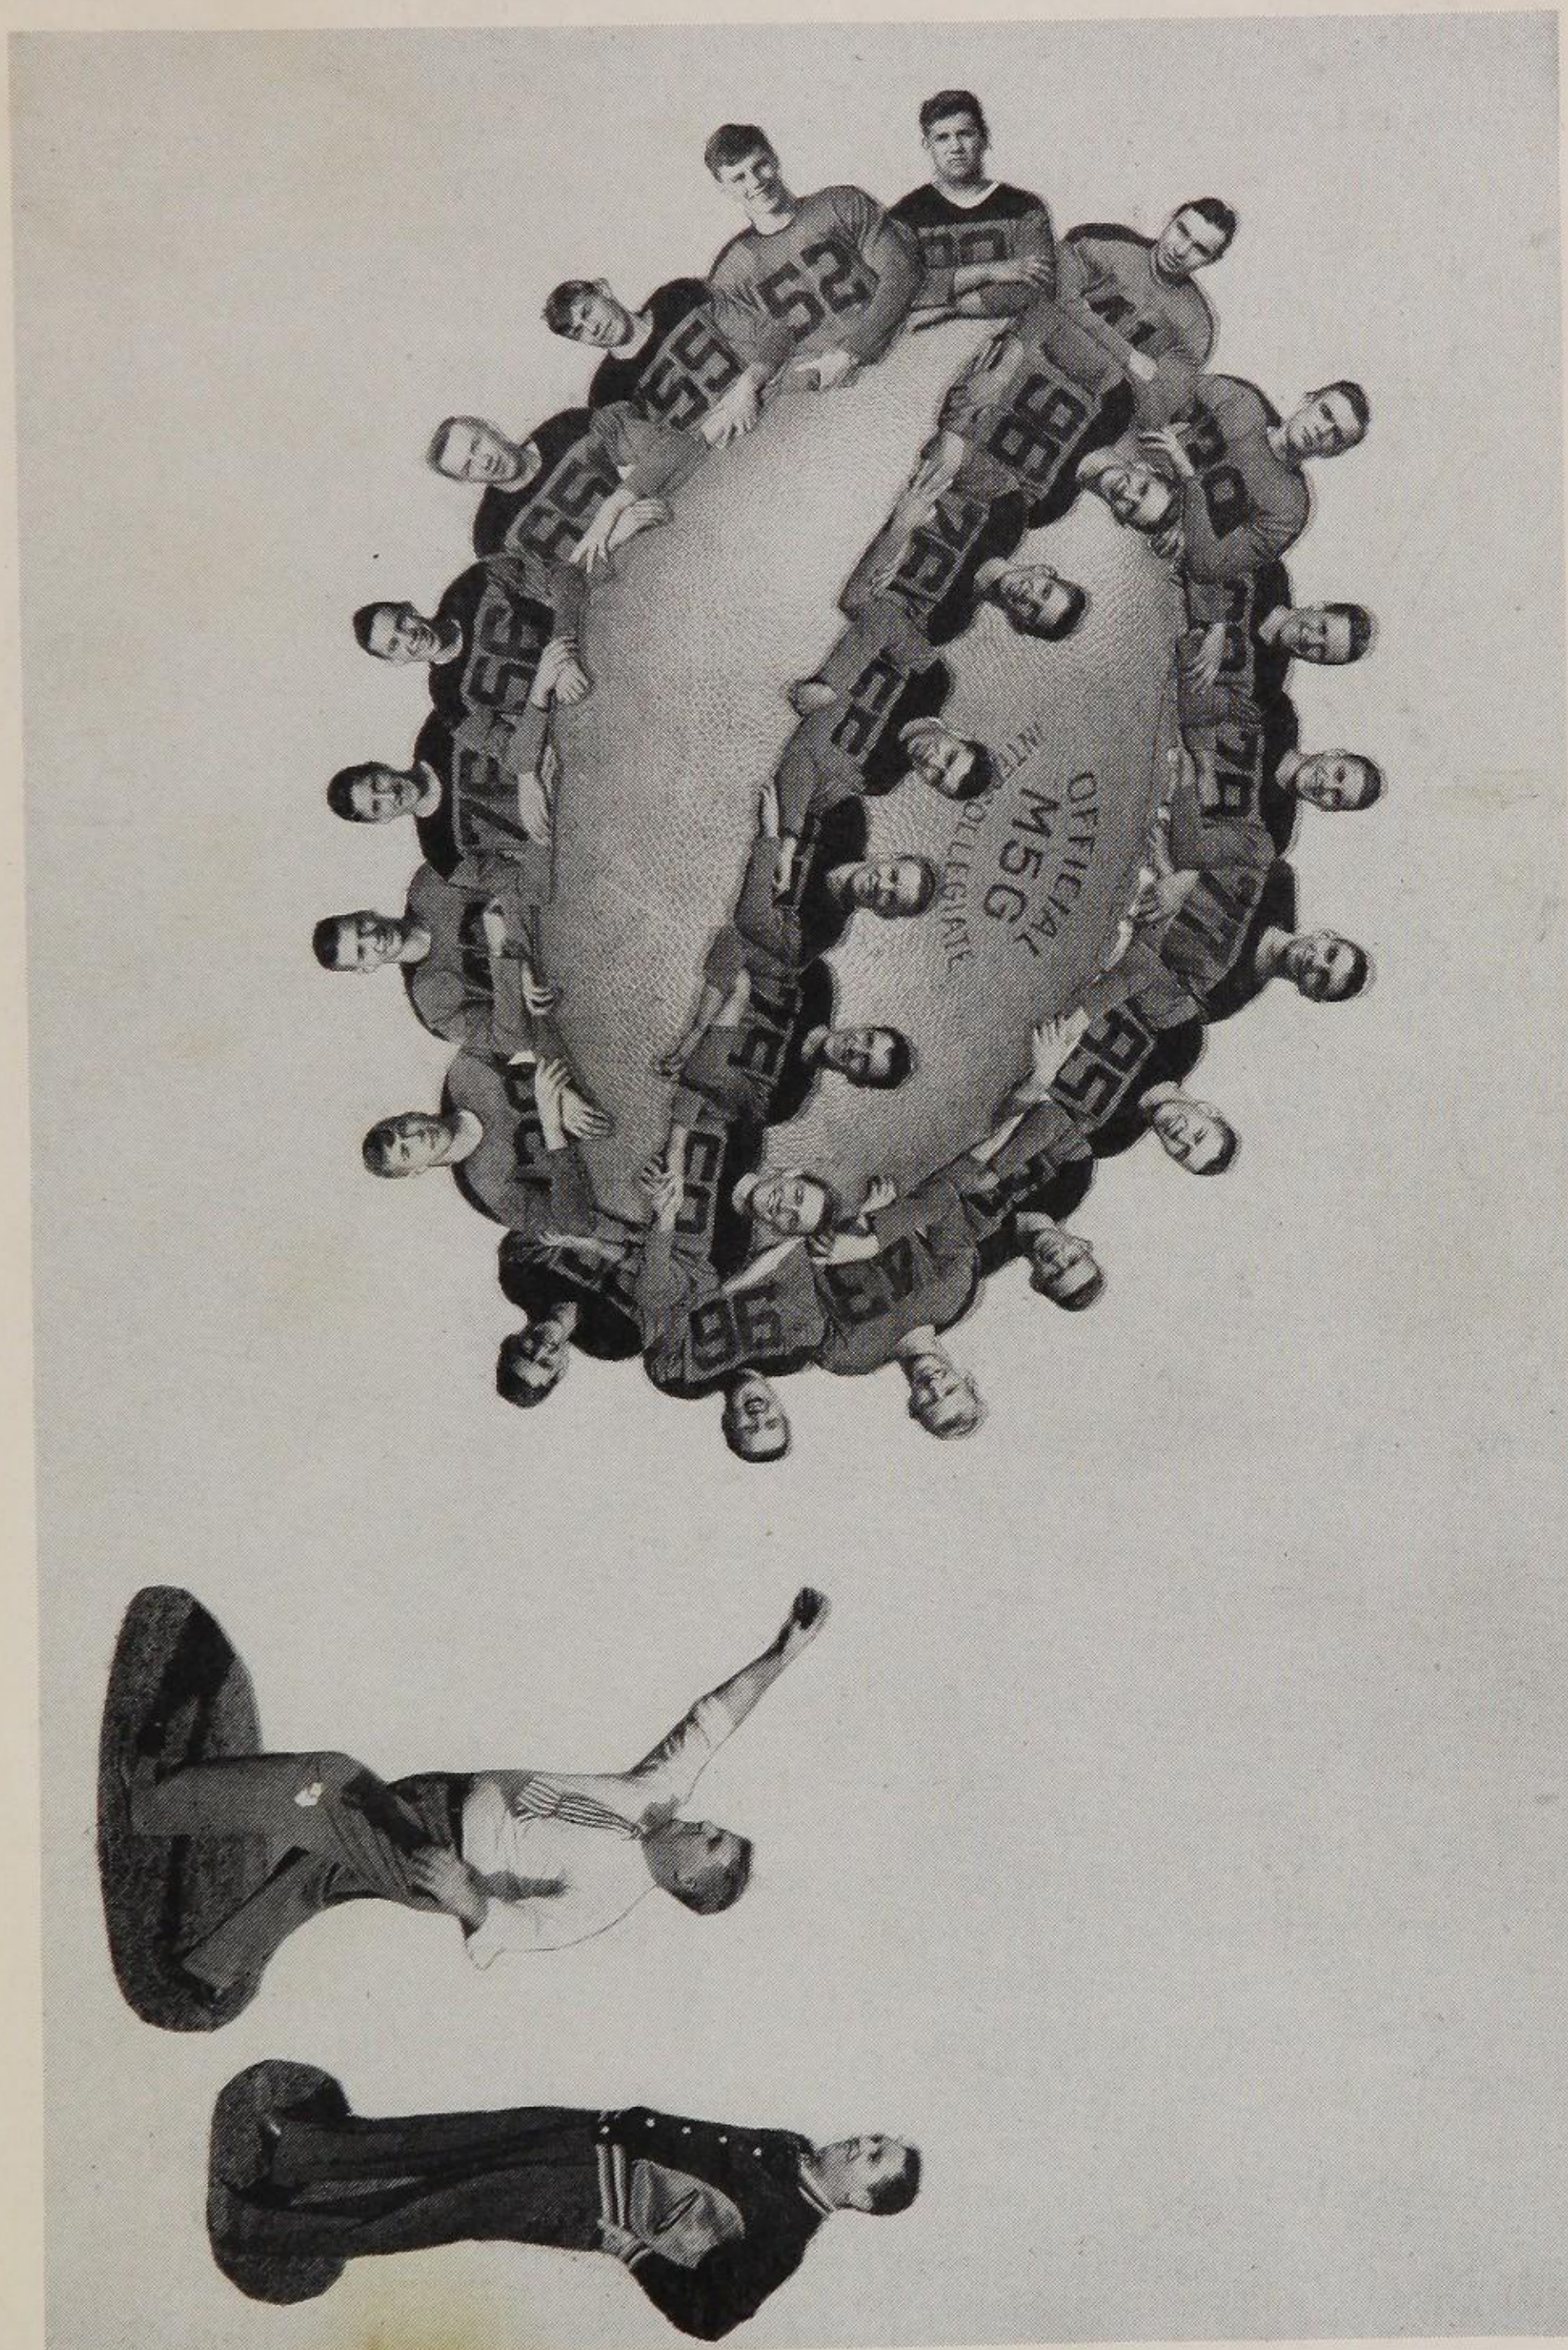
On this memorable night the game was played on a field completely covered with snow. Neither offensive unit could score. Shelton's punting highlighted the game. It was the last game for fifteen seniors.

Cheerleaders

FIRST ROW: Collier, Stoneman, Bullock. SECOND ROW: Burke, Curtiss, Crowe, Weeks.

THE excitement of the lights, the band and school song, the drum roll, the kickoff, the rapturous joy of the first touchdown, the sorrows of missing a first down by inches—all this is dear to the hearts of these seven girls. To be out there cheering even in the rain is what they love. At the basketball game there's the crowd, the heat, the roaring noise, the deadly silence, the winning basket—this, too, they love. They put their whole hearts into cheering for the team and trying to help. Whether in warm wool sweaters or trim orange jumpers, these girls have done a good job this year, both in pepping up the spectators and in trying to maintain the standards of good sportsmanship.

Football Lettermen



STANDING: Coach Quesinberry, Coach Lopatt. ACROSS THE SEAM: Stanton, Hubbard, Fitzpatrick, Conway, Miraglia, Rodgers. AROUND THE BALL: Stevenson, Barber, Hill, Gibson, Hofmann, Hawthorne, Bull, Imars, Hurst, Ebel, Cubberly, McCormick, Shelton, Jon Fitzpatrick, Plzak, Hoekstra, Crittenden, Katchele.

Football Lettermen Write-Ups

Jim Fitzpatrick—Captain—Quarterback

"Fitz" made an excellent football captain because every player on the squad had full confidence in his field generalship. He played spectacularly enough both on offense and defense to be chosen for the All-County Team.

Cecil Hill—Halfback

Due to his exceptional speed, "Cec" played safety-man on defense while alternating between halfback and fullback on the offense. The fact that he was fast made opposing teams think twice before attempting a quick kick. "Cec" had the distinction of being the only three-year letterman on the squad.

Ben Miraglia—End

Ben proved to be one of the best offensive ends in the league. From his defensive halfback position Benny brought the crowd to their feet, and changed the tide of many games with his brilliant interceptions and punt returns.

Tom Rodgers—Guard

"Rodge" lived up to the old adage, "What he lacked in size he made up for in fight". "Rodge" made opposing linemen both on offense and defense wonder with amazement at his speed and drive. He was our other player chosen for the All-County Team.

Jim Hubbard—Halfback

"Baldy" played his regular offensive halfback position besides taking over as a regular defensive end. The opposition never went around his end twice.

Jack Stanton—Tackle

Coach moved Jack to tackle this year because of his size. Jack also played well the other defensive end position and called defensive signals.

Tom Conway—Guard

"Ace" was another one of our watch charm guards. He played valiantly on both offense and defense. He made up for size with spirit and determination.

Ford Bull—Guard

Ford was moved from the backfield to guard this year. Although he lacked experience in the line he learned fast and made the competition for first string guard very keen.

Jim Gibson—Tackle

"Gib" was the smallest tackle in the league this year, but also one of the hardest charging and fastest moving. Because he was so seldom injured he played nearly every minute.

Carl Hofmann—Center

"Fluff" was moved from tackle to center this year to strengthen the center of the line. He did a wonderful job and proved to be an efficient cog in the forward wall.

Martin Hawthorne—Halfback

The excessive teasing which "Marty" took from the squad only seemed to be an incentive for him to play a better brand of ball.

Dean Imars—Tackle

"Imy" always looked for a chance to play. He worked hard perfecting his kick-offs and kept the first string tackles hustling to hold down their positions.

Warren Barber—Tackle

"Bob" worked very hard all season to win his letter. He really deserved it, too, because he came out for practices in his junior year in spite of his one year's ineligibility.

John Hurst—Guard

This was "Tiger's" first year on the squad but it didn't take him very long to catch up with the more experienced players as far as learning the game.

Charles Stevenson—Center

This was "Chas's" first year on the squad, and although he didn't play regularly, his enthusiasm more than warranted his place on the team.

Bob Boone—Senior Manager

Bob completed his fourth year of managing this year. He was just another unsung hero who was a necessary cog in the ball club.

Doug Heck—Senior Manager

"Jock" did his part toward the completion of a successful season by his unceasing hard-working efforts.

Tom Henderson—Senior Manager

"Knobby" started the season as an active player. Due to an injury he was forced to give up the game but asked to help out as manager. He proved very efficient.

Larry Katchele—Fullback

"Barrel" was the main piston of our running attack. He also did some of the passing and most of the punting this year. As this was already Larry's second letter he ought to be a triple-threat next year.

Dave Ebel—End

"Lover" was one of the lightest ends in the league. His speed and his ability to catch the ball will undoubtedly make him one of the best ends in the county next year.

Bruce Crittenden—Center

"Critt" developed into a very able center. His rugged tackling will bolster the center of the line next year.

Karl Hoekstra—End

It was a rare occasion when the opposing offensive ballcarrier outmaneuvered "Hockey". Next year he will play offensive end.

George Plzak—End

Although George was light he won his letter at tackle. "Plaz" will probably play offensive tackle and defensive end next year.

Ron McCormick—Guard

"Mac" suffered the only major injury on the team this year. He came back strong to win his letter. His speed will be a valuable asset at guard next year.

Hal Cubberly—Fullback

"Cub" didn't play first string but was always on hand to fill an injured back's position. He will fit in well at whatever position he plays next year.

Jerry Hawn—Junior Manager

Jerry did a very capable job of assistant managing this year. Next year he will become his own boss.

Jon Fitzpatrick—Quarterback

"Little Fitz" filled in ably for "Big Fitz" throughout the season. Next year much is expected of him and he will, no doubt, take over where his brother left off.

Pete Shelton—Halfback

Besides being a fine ballcarrier Pete also kicked and passed well. He ought to be a dangerous triple-threat for the next two years.

Varsity Scores

Chagrin 37 ---------- Bainbridge 21

The opening of the season saw the Tigers win over their friendly rivals from Bainbridge.

Chagrin 34 ---------- Cuyahoga Heights 45

Chagrin dropped its first league game to a taller Redskin team at Heights.

Chagrin 57 ----------Independence 54

Independence suffered their only league loss of the season in an overtime at Chagrin.

Chagrin 42 ---------- Brecksville 45

Although the Tigers rallied in the last quarter it was not enough to catch the busy "Bees".

Chagrin 46 ---------- Mayfield 30

Invading Mayfield proved to be just a breather as Chagrin led in all four quarters.

Chagrin 46 ---------- Alumni 30

The grads found it rough going as the Tigers easily downed their former teammates.

Chagrin 45 ---------- Orange 44

Chagrin held an early lead throughout the game and had to stave off a fourth period rally in order to defeat their arch rival at Orange.

Chagrin 30 ---------- Cuyahoga Heights 31

Although the Tigers led throughout most of the game, a last-second goal turned the game into a heartbreaker for the Chagrin fans.

Chagrin 46 ---------- Independence 48

The Tigers came within two points of defeating the Blue Devils for the second time this season.

Chagrin 24 ---------- Brecksville 13

The Chagrin spectators witnessed one of the lowest scoring games in the history of the County League as the Tigers went on to win, displaying their superb defense.

Chagrin 49 ---------- Mayfield 47

The Tigers found that Mayfield was no breather this time as they barely squeezed out a victory in Mayfield's small gymnasium.

Chagrin 44 ---------- Solon 33

Chagrin, exercising a two-platoon system for the first time, rolled over Solon easily on our floor.

Chagrin 43 ---------- Orange 34

The Lions came to Chagrin ready to tear the Tigers apart, but the Tigers had other ideas and sent Orange home with a defeat.

Chagrin 32 ---------- Solon 42

Solon avenged their previous loss by defeating the Tigers in the last home game of the season.

Basketball Lettermen

Ben Miraglia—Co-Captain—Guard

Ben's competitive spirit and knowledge of the game enabled him to become our most valuable player. He was our high scorer for the season and our only three-year letterman.

Jim Hubbard—Co-Captain—Guard

Jim was undoubtedly our best defensive player and displayed this ability by crossing up many of the opposition's fast breaks. This was Jim's second year on the varsity.

Carl Hofmann—Forward

Carl's deadly shot from the corner proved to be an effective weapon in assuring us the lead in close ball games. He was first to come and last to leave at every practice because of his great love for the game.

Bob Boone—Guard

Bob learned to hold his own with players a foot taller than himself. His accurate shooting from outside opened up many a tight defense.

Jack Stanton—Center

Although Jack was the tallest man on the team, he was still a small man as far as centers go. To offset this, he developed an accurate pivot shot.

Dean Imars—Center

Dean could play every position on the team and this ability made him a valuable player in many games.

George Plzak—Forward

George proved to be very adept at snatching rebounds from the hands of much taller men. His left-handed shots will be an asset to him next year.

Jack McFarland—Forward

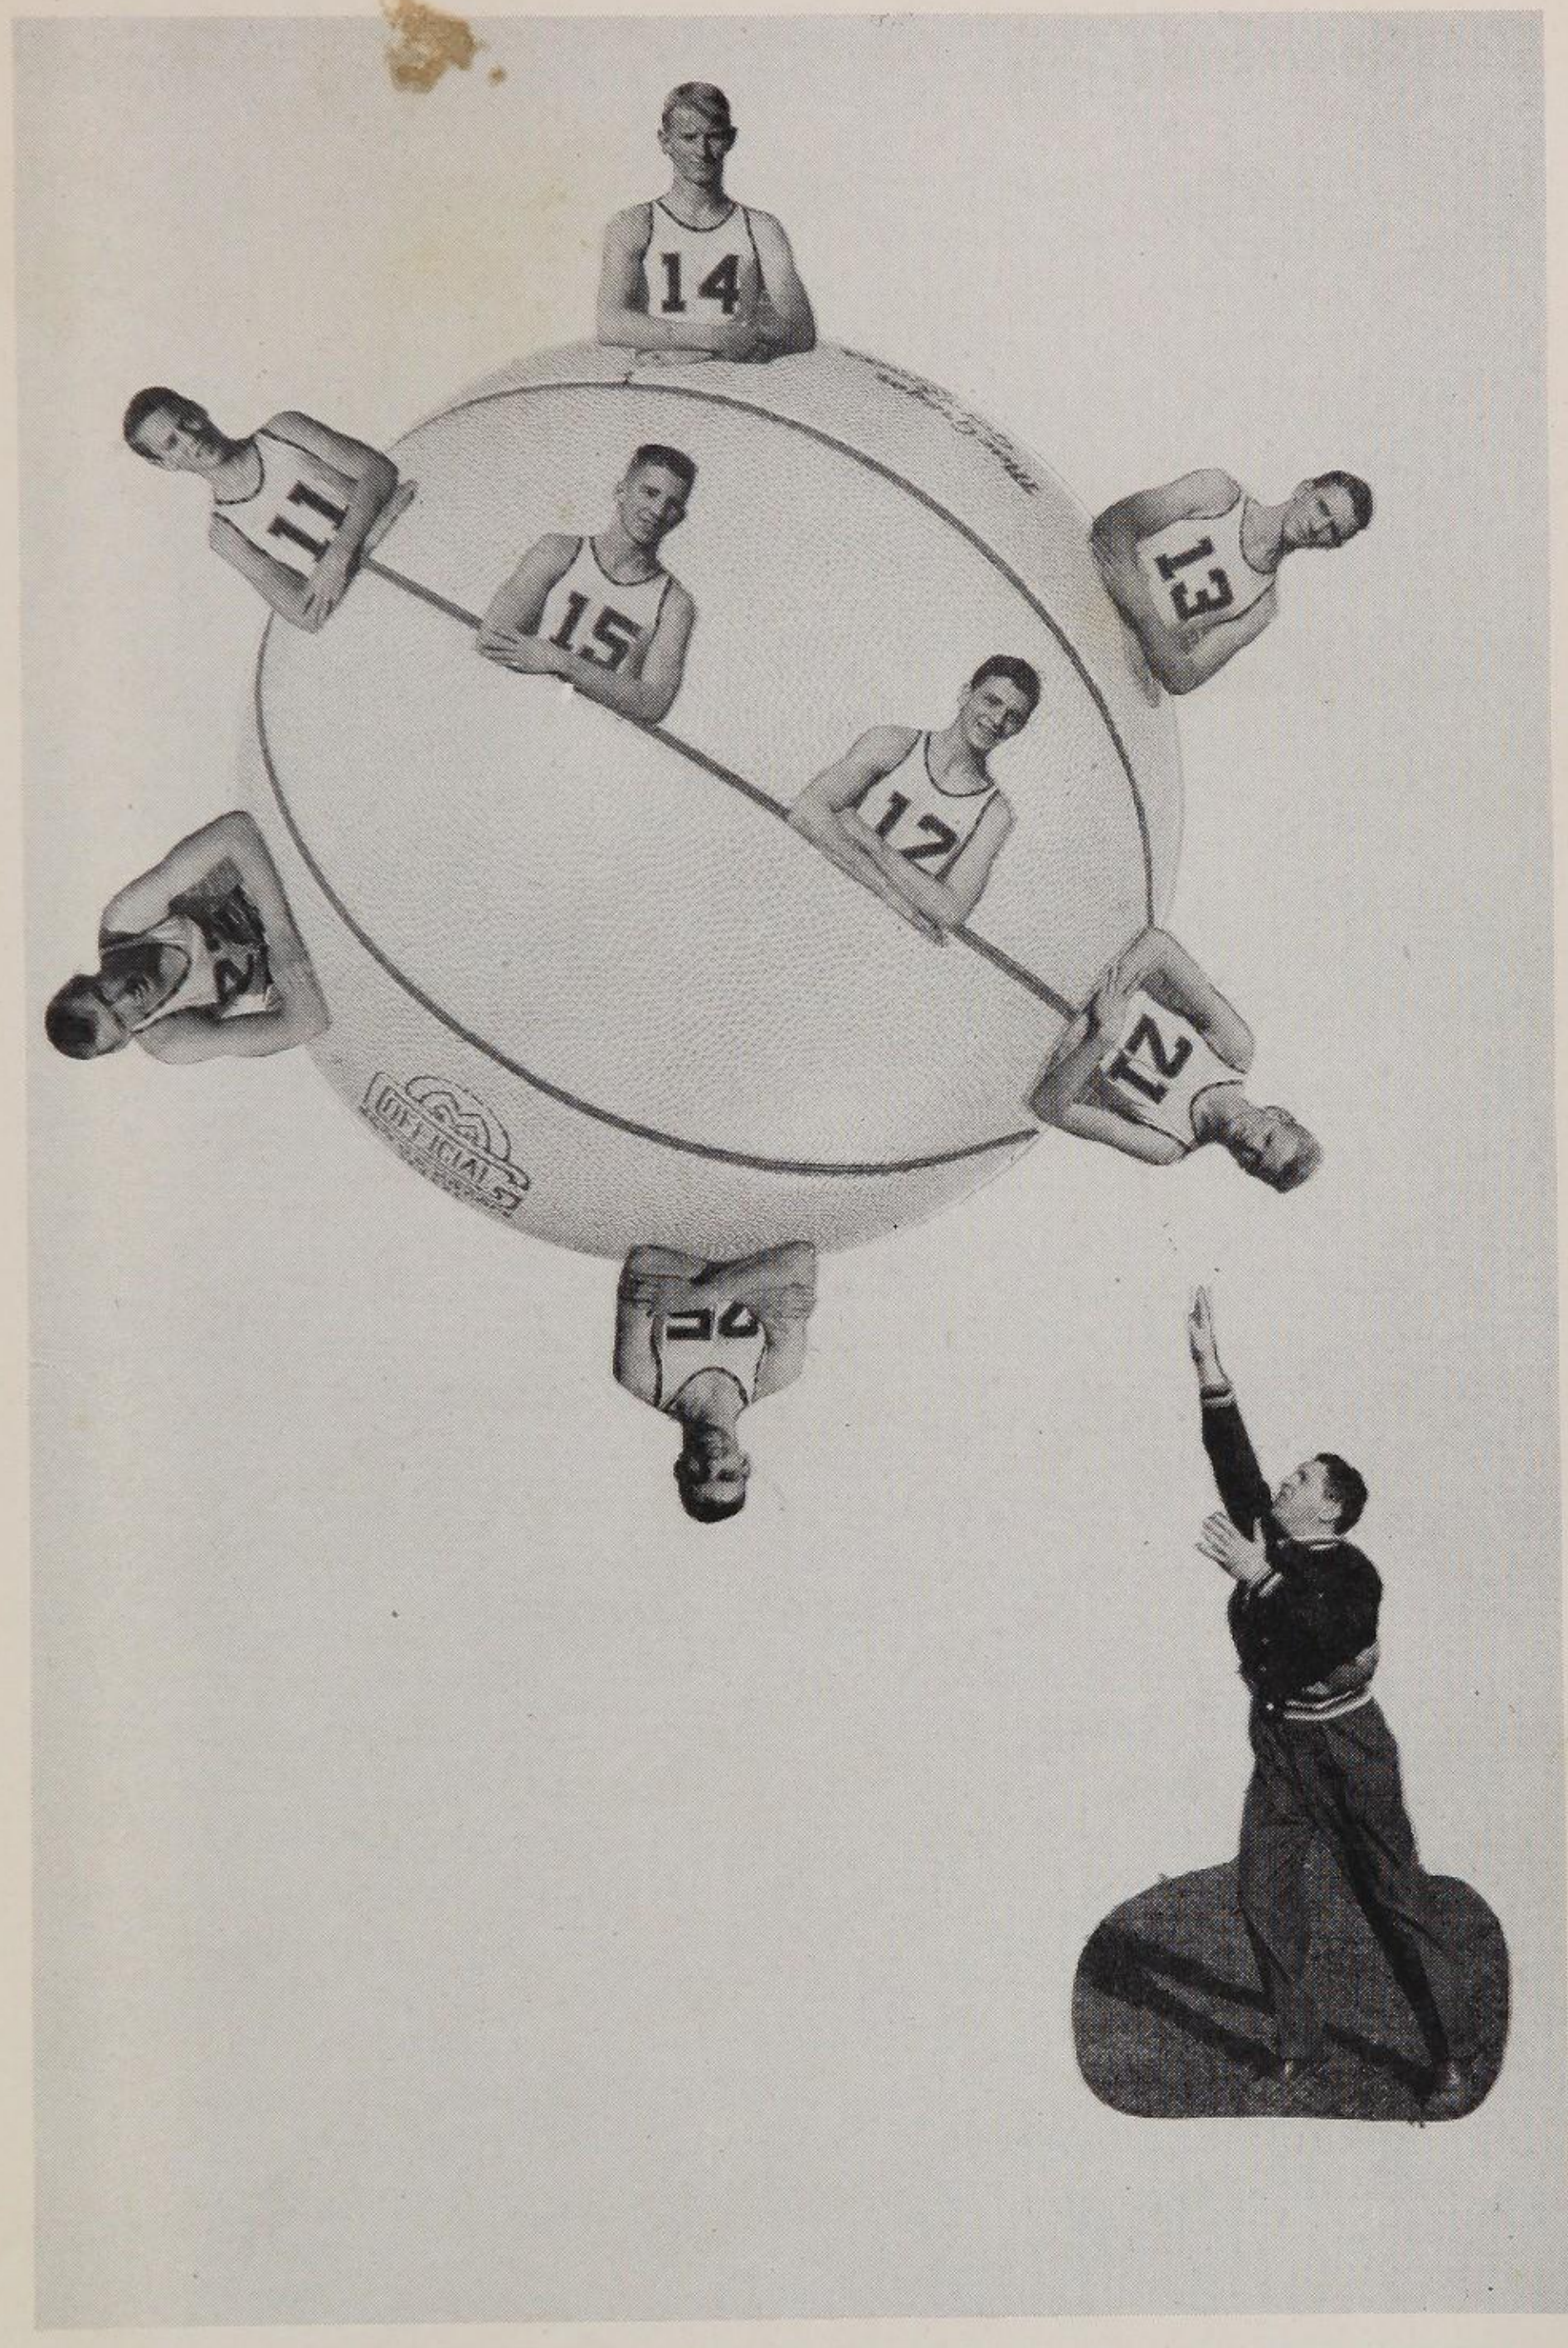
Mac could easily make his baskets from either the inside or the outside. He is a junior and much will be expected of him next year.

Dave Farris—Forward

Dave was brought up from the "B" Team at the beginning of the season and due to his accurate shooting he soon won a starting spot. He'll be back next year.

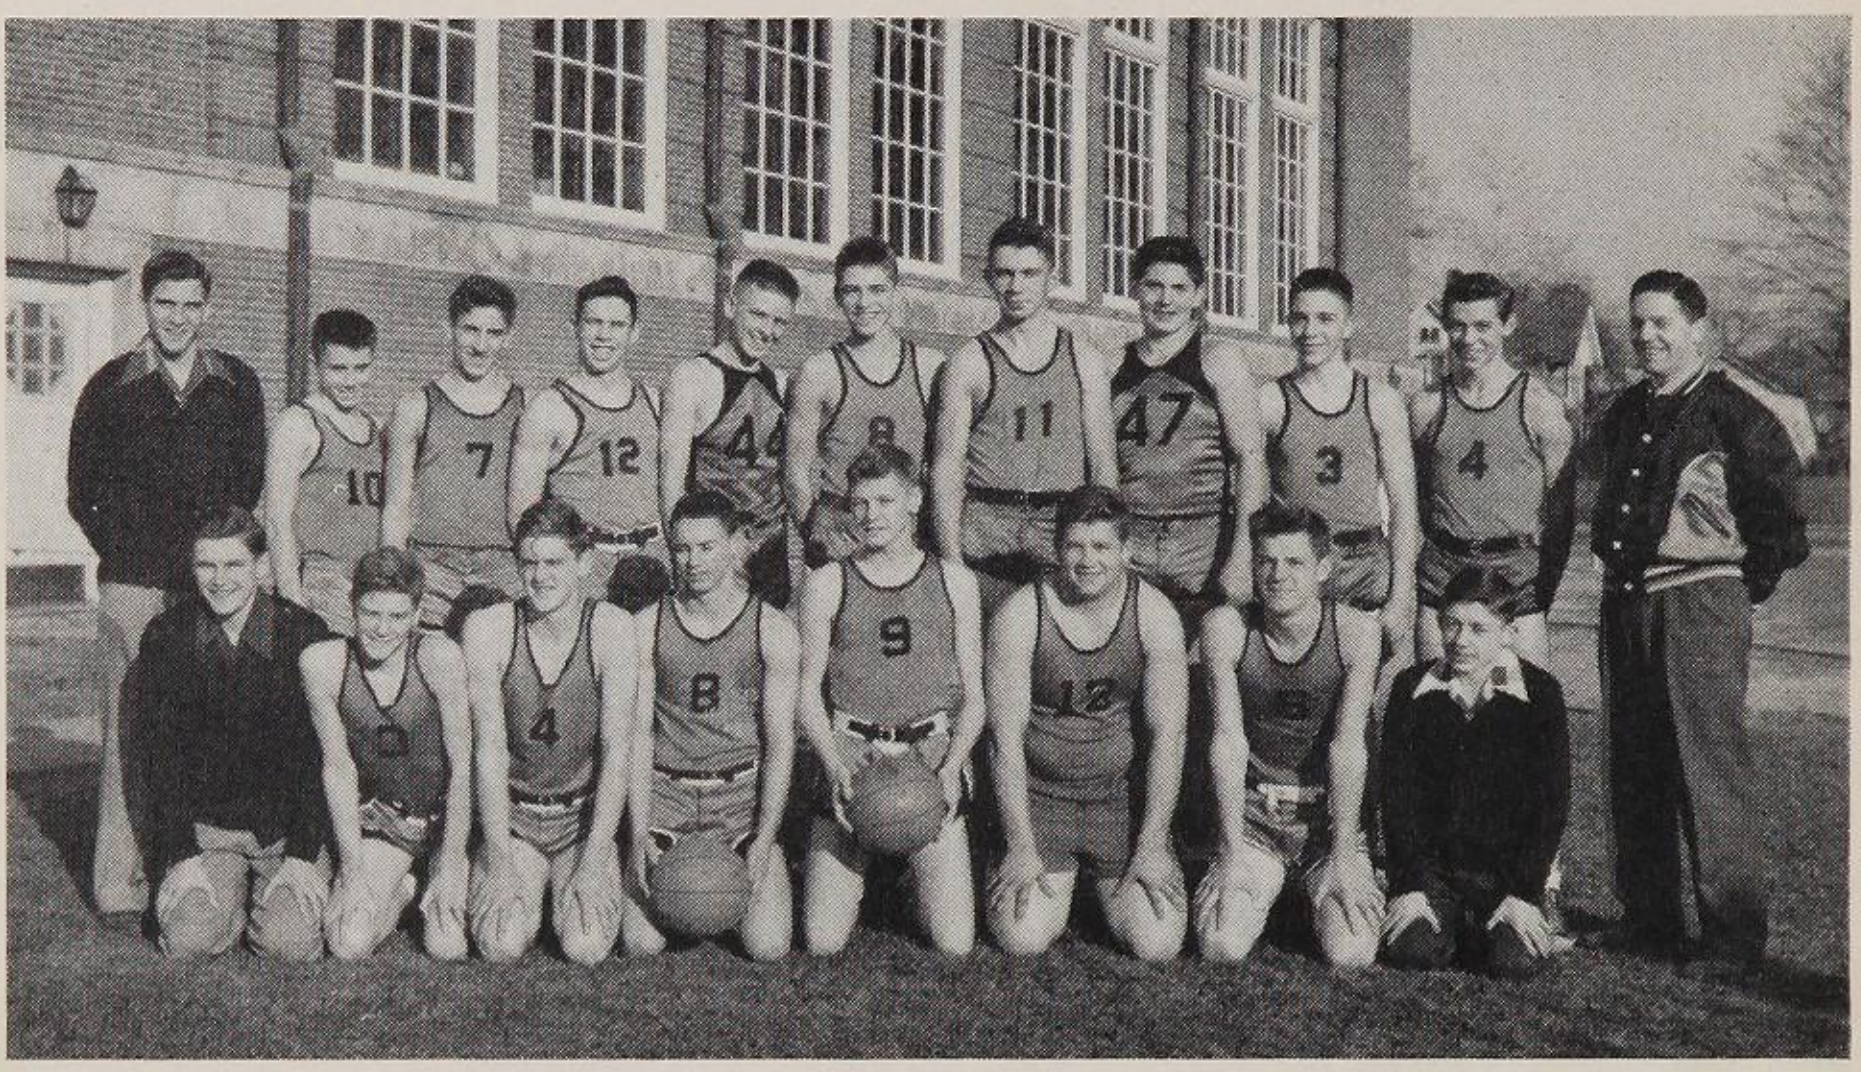
Al Cowhard—Guard

Al was brought up from the "B" Team and although he lacked experience he learned rapidly and will see much action next year.



STANDING: Coach Lopatt. ACROSS SEAM: Hubbard, Miraglia. AROUND BALL: Boone, Imars, Stanton, McFarland, Hofmann, Plzak. NOT PRESENT: Cowhard, Farris.

Junior Varsity



KNEELING: Stroud, Farris, Ebel, Matthews, Hartman, Katchele, Cowhard, Crombie. STANDING: Wendl, McNally, Shelton, Fitzpatrick, Crink, Van Nort, Hudson, Burton, Wiley, Curtis, Coach Lopatt.

THE "B" Team came out on top of the heap this year, tying with Orange for the championship. This made a rather ironic situation as Chagrin defeated Orange twice. This, we hope, indicates that next year's "A" Team should be right up there, too!
